President's Message

Dear Beta Beta Sisters,

2020 has arrived and has brought with it the potential for many new beginnings!

Our first meeting of this calendar year was February 3 at the Community Foundation, hosted by Traci Poole. We had a quorum and approved our rules revisions (quorum number decreased), budget, and past minutes. It is time to nominate new members! Please send your nominees by March 15 to me, and I will forward to the group for approval. The link is on page 2, our website, and the ncdkg website.

The convention plans are well under way and are shaping very nicely. If you have never attended a state convention, you definitely should attend this year. It's in Greensboro! Also, the opportunity to meet fellow DKG members from across the state has become one of my favorite events.

I still need your help with our chapter's role in convention. We need a basket to raffle, door prizes, and lots and lots of helping hands. Our basket's theme is Snow Day Emergency Kit, and I would like to include a cuddly throw blanket, a couple of rental or streaming gift cards (redbox, fandangoo, etc), popcorn, candies, and whatever else you would want in a gift basket. Door prizes should be small items valued at $5-$10 in gift bags. If you have connections, let's use them! As the convention weekend approaches, we will be asking for people to sign up for various tasks and shifts on SignUp Genius. As convention is a major event with many moving parts, please help where you can.

Looking forward to seeing all of you soon!

In Sisterhood,

Sharon

Membership!

Membership applications are due!
Consider nominating colleagues, your children's or grandchildren's teachers, friends, and neighbors for membership! Any woman involved in education at any level is eligible to join, and with the new collegiate level of membership, our group could connect with those most in need of mentoring and support.

Congratulations to Kamine Haghighi, grandmother of twins!

Members Fundraising

The Tea Party fundraiser, December 14, was a huge success despite its small turnout. We raised $110 for our Janie Phillips Grant-in-Aid for first- and second-year teachers.
Much thanks goes to Pam Farlow for coordinating the event, securing the venue, and providing the tea. Our regional director, Peggy Stuart, stopped by. We raffled off a variety of items including baked goods, scarves, books, jewelry, and handbags. All present agreed that it was an easy way to raise money and spend a few hours together. Thank you to all who attended!!!

News from Eta State NC

Headquarters is the Convention Project!
Members who have completed their doctoral degrees between July 1, 2018 - June 30, 2020, will be recognized and honored at the 2020 DKG International Convention in Philadelphia. Check the current issue of Eta Data for details. The deadline is April 30.

The NC DKG Educational Foundation encourages members to show their love and celebrate a teacher by participating in the 101 Challenge. For the month of February, all donations will be matched dollar for dollar!

2020 Convention

Convention registration continues! Use the Google Form to register. Pay by credit card or check. Early bird deadline is April 15.

All volunteers must be registered attendees, and we will need all of the help we can get!

Book your room at Embassy Suites before they are all gone! The rate is $125 per night and includes breakfast and happy hour. Call the hotel directly (336-668-4535) and use the code DKG for the discount.

Don't forget to recognize your fellow sisters, mentors, and even your own businesses with program ads! Ads are due March 31.
